

SALINAS POLICE DEPARTMENT PRESENTS

Have you ever wanted to know how to

DRIVE LIKE A COP? SAVE SOMEONE'S LIFE? GET A GOOD JOB?

You can learn all of this and more by signing up for SPARK! What's SPARK? It's the Salinas Police Awareness, Responsibility, and Knowledge course, created for high school students. You'll learn powerful life skills from real police officers plus EMTs, doctors, and other people whose lives and work make an impact.

Every class is full of inside knowledge and hands-on experience you won't find anywhere else. How much does it cost? It's free—you just commit to showing up.

SPARK happens weekly at Salinas Police Headquarters, 222 Lincoln Ave., starting Monday, May 6. Learn more or sign up: Call Sergeant Albert Duran, (831) 775-4201, ext 6072, or email him at albertod@ci.salinas.ca.us.

Monday, May 6 • 6-9 pm:

Self-Image and Identity (young women), Chief Adele Fresé • Masculinity Upgraded: Strength for a Safer Community (young men), Monterey County Rape Crisis Center

Monday, May 13 • 6-9 pm:

Job Interview Prep • Central Coast Human Resource Association

Monday, May 20 • 6-9 pm:

Basic First Aid and Social Media Safety

Monday, June 3 • 6-9 pm:

Why'd You Stop Me? • What to expect and how to react during a police contact

Saturday, June 8 • 8 am-5 pm:

Driver Safety • Behind the wheel drivers training, including basic driving maneuvers and collision avoidance drills. (Driver's license or permit not required, but must be a high school student.)

Information: Sergeant Albert Duran
(831) 775-4201, ext 6072 • albertod@ci.salinas.ca.us